FOLK MEN FEAR STONE'S ASSISTANCE

Senator Now Threatens to Return and Help "Save" Missouri This Fall.

DISTRESS SIGNAL FROM COOK

Clean Ticket, Not Lobby Assistance, Is Party's Present Need, Say Folk Supporters.

Senator William J. Stone, now at Atlantic City, N. J., in a letter to the editor of the Carrolton Democrat, states that he intends to return to Missouri about May 15, and adds:

"I will be at home during the campaign and expect to do my full share as usual, but I feel that it will require the best work all of us can do to maintain the supremacy of the Democratic party in Missouri."

After intimating that the gubernatorial contest has brought about this condition of affairs, Stone continues:

"I do not disguise from myself the fact that we are to have the hardest fight this year we have ever had. I have no doubt about winning, but we have a fight on our hands and our forces must be rallied."

It appears that Stone has abandoned his previous intention to go to Europe this summer, as he announced to several friends during his recent visit to St. Louis, and has now decided to cast himself into the breach at home.

According to those who know him best it will be and news to Circuit Attorney Joseph W. Folk to learn that Senator Stone is coming back to help "save Missouri."

It is apparent to the politicians that the senator is alarmed over Missouri this fall in view of the decisive overthrow of the state machine.

Further, they believe Stone is returning in order that he may fulfill certain pledges to his friends.

Cook in Need of Stone's Aid.

Sam B. Cook, among others, is badly in need of the senator's aid. Cook, who is seeking a renomination for the office of secretary of state, has about 100 votes to his credit, while at least 200 delegates are not committed to any candidate.

Stone, politicians assert, owes much to Cook. In the first place the secretary of state expected to have Stone's support for governor, because Cook worked night and day to insure the alum statesman's election to the United States Senate.

But just at the critical moment Stone slipped away, and Cook, feeling that he could not secure his support, turned to his present position.

But even Cook's intimates realize that he has a terrible burden to shoulder. The specter of the Cardwell case, in which Cook confessed that the machine "held up" corporations in one campaign to the tune of $15,000; the broader law, which Cook helped to lobby through the legislature, and, last but not least, the notorious Speed-Lyons bribery deal, which makes him a part of the state machine.

Within the past year all these things are like a dead weight on Cook, and how Stone can help to lift them, in view of his own handicaps, is a puzzle, even to the lieutenants of the senator.

"Stone is not wanted in this campaign at all," declared a friend of Mr. Folk today.

"We have won the fight without him, and as this is going to be a clean year in politics, we don't want any obnoxious going to the front to defend the Democracy."

Stone's Help a Dead Weight.

"It would satisfy the rank and file of Mr. Folk's supporters better if Stone would kindly relieve them of the embarrassment of his assistance."

"Some explain Stone's action on the ground that he is a sick man—has been sick for some time—and wants to take the stump for the benefit of his health."

"It is significant, however, that he should announce his home coming just as one of the counties (Boone) instructs for him for delegate-at-large. Stone covets that honor, and despite the assertions of his friends he will be after it hot and heavy inside of 30 days."

"But here is where Mr. Folk is liable to be embarrassed. Bill Phelps, who has been doing a heap of work helping Folk, not because he loved Folk, but rather because he despises the state machine, is going to ask that he be made a delegate-at-large if Stone insists on getting into the race. Phelps admits he is a lobbyist, but not of the Stone brand. He doesn't hide the shells."

"It would suit Mr. Folk if Cook and Allen would get out of the running and if Stone would not burden them with his oratorical efforts. It is not going to be hard for the Democratic party to carry Missouri this year if the right sort of a ticket is nominated. Stone always was a calamity howler. Folk should carry Missouri by 60,000 majority."

HISTORY IN FRENCH PAINTING.

"Founding of St. Louis" Shown in Fine Arts Palace.

Simple ceremonies marked the opening of the French exhibit in the Palace of Fine Arts Thursday afternoon. Compliments were exchanged by Commissioner-General M. Michel Lagrange and M. Andre Sagio, commissioner of fine arts, and the guests passed through the rooms of exhibits viewing the paintings, jewelry, tapestries, leather work and china included in the exhibit.

The "Foundation of the Town of St. Louis by Pierre Laclède in 1764" is one of the pictures which attracted much attention. It is painted by Ferdinand Le Queux and represents the first settlers of the city gathered about a campfire, Indians standing near, while the clouds are angels carrying the lilacs of France and the coat of arms of America. Fifty guests were present at the opening exercises. The French exhibit occupies about twenty rooms of space in the Fine Arts Palace.

Tickets on sale May 7 and 8, final return limit May 9th.

CONVENIENCES ARE DEMANDED.

Fair Commissioners Ask Free Lavatories and Drinking Water.

The executive committee of the Executive-Commissioners' Association of the World's Fair is in session this afternoon in the Iowa building. The main question under discussion is a resolution asking the Exposition company to make all lavatories on the grounds free. The commissioners are united in the opinion that no charge should be made for the use of lavatories.

The commissioners will also advocate free drinking water on the grounds. The executive committee appointed at Chicago by the World's Fair, chairman, James A. Fisher, California; Louis, Tennessee; Grant Thomas, Wisconsin; Paul Wilson, Colorado; J. H. Vail, Connecticut; David Hart, North Dakota; Stacy B. Rankin, Ohio, and W. F. Wilson.

Merits: E. J. Denny, Iowa; John Test, New York; don't forget, make up 30.

The ladies who have used Newbro's Herpicide speak of it in the highest terms for its quick effect in cleansing the scalp of dandruff and also for its excellence as a general hair-dressing. It makes the scalp feel fresh and it lays that itching which dandruff will cause. Newbro's Herpicide effectively cures dandruff, as it destroys the germ that causes it. The same germ causes hair to fall out, and later baldness; in killing it, Herpicide stops falling hair and prevents baldness. It is also an ideal hair-dressing, for it lends an aristocratic charm to the hair that is quite distinctive. Sold by leading druggists. Miss Alice M. Smith, of Minneapolis, Minn., tells how woman's monthly suffering may be quickly and permanently relieved by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—I have never before given my endorsement for any medicine, but Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has added so much to my life and happiness that I feel like making an exception in this case. For two years every month I would have two days of severe pain and could find no relief, but one day when visiting a friend I ran across Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, she had used it with the best results and advised me to try it. I found that it worked wonders with me; I now experience no pain and only had to use a few bottles to bring about this wonderful change. I use it occasionally now when I am exceptionally tired or worn out."

—Miss ALICE M. SMITH, 804 Third Ave., South Minneapolis, Minn., Chairman Executive Committee Minneapolis Study Club.

Beauty and strength in women vanish early in life because of monthly pain or some menstrual irregularity. Many suffer silently and see their best gifts fade away. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound helps women preserve roundness of form and freshness of face because it makes their entire female organism healthy. It carries women safely through the various natural crises and is the safeguard of woman's health.

The truth about this great medicine is told in the letters from women published in this paper constantly.

Mrs. C. Kleinschrodt, Morrison, Ill., says:—

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—I have suffered ever since I was thirteen years of age with my menses. They were irregular and very painful. I doctored a great deal but received no benefit. A friend advised me to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, which I did, and after taking a few bottles of it, I found great relief.

"Menstruation is now regular and without pain. I am enjoying better health than I have for sometime."

How is it possible for us to make it plainer that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound will positively help all sick women? All women are constituted alike, rich and poor, high and low, all suffer from the same organic troubles. Surely, no one can wish to remain weak and sickly, discouraged with life and without hope for the future, when proof is so unmistakable that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound will cure monthly suffering—all womb and ovarian troubles, and all the ills peculiar to women.

$5000 REWARD If we cannot forthwith produce the original letters and signatures of above testimonials, which will prove their genuineness.

Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass.

KANSAS CITY WATER SUPPLY CUT OFF

Local Flood From Terrific Rain Storm Washes Mains From the Ground.

ONE DEAD; ELEVEN INJURED

Many Buildings Struck by Lightning and Damage Caused by Flooded Basements—River Rising.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., May 6.—Kansas City was almost entirely without city water this morning, as a result of the terrific rain storm yesterday afternoon, during which 3.1 inches of water fell in four hours. One man was killed and 11 injured as a result of the storm, and numerous buildings were struck by lightning and hundreds of basements filled with merchandise flooded. Electric light service for most of the city was discontinued over night.

The trouble at the waterworks resulted from the washing out of a 30-inch main, leading to the Turkey creek pumping station, and another main, a 40-inch pipe, was bent. If this main gives way the water will be shut off entirely. As it is, much of the city is without water supply, and the remaining portion has a limited flow.

The street cars in delayed on nearly all lines by high water on the tracks and the new branch to the Elm River racetrack suffered a huge washout, while 200 people were at the track. They struggled home afoot or in carriages. It is believed to be impossible to restore the railway in time for today's races, which will go on, however.

At the Kansas river bridge, over which street cars cross the Kansas river, between the stockyards district and Armourdale, was in danger last night. The river lay above the danger line and rising. A thousand people have been driven from their homes in Koselade, Kan., and Kansas City, because of the overflow of Turkey creek.

John Downey, a laborer, was killed by lightning as the oil refinery in the east bottoms.

The City Hall, the Savoy Hotel and the building occupied by Swift Brothers, wholesale dry goods company, were struck by lightning, but not seriously damaged. Eleven persons, nine of them women, were injured in a panic among the passengers of crowded independence electric car tonight. The controller blew out and most of the passengers became panic-stricken. In a rush to get to the rear platform of the car, the men roughly shoved the women aside, threw and sent women to floor and trampled her. Some of the men broke the glass in the windows with umbrellas and jumped through the windows to the ground. The injured:

Mrs. John Noun, aged 75, condition serious; Mrs. John Moody, Sophia Burns, Mrs. Catherine Mercer, Miss Irene Bryant, Mrs. Joseph Mercer, Mrs. Will Clark and Mrs. John Cowell, Daniel Collier, all of independence; Fred Wilkins, Dr. O. C. Halderman.

DAMAGE FROM RAIN AND HAIL IN OKLAHOMA AND KANSAS.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., May 6.—Dispatches from western Missouri, many sections of Kansas and Oklahoma, report heavy rain and hail. The hail damaged fruit blossoms and the rain was not needed by crops. The lowlands were already too wet for corn planting.

POST-DISPATCH PATTERNS

GIRL'S DRESS.

No. 4414—This model is appropriate for parties and afternoon wear. It will look well made of liberty silk, organdie, Swiss or mull. The waist has a full blouse with vest effect, and a bertha over which a lace collar may be used. The sleeve is a fancy design of elbow length. The skirt is circular over which is a pointed flounce over an accordion-plaited ruffle. For a dainty pretty dress this is a good model to follow. Made up of figured foulard, it can easily be made from an old dress, that is out of style, and by combining accordion-plaited ruffles of net or mull with it, a charming little frock is produced.

Material required for 12-year girl, 6 1/2 yards, 36 inches wide. Sizes for 10, 12, 14 and 16 years.

The St. Louis Post-Dispatch will mail Girl's Dress Pattern on receipt of 10 cents to cover cost of handling.

THE SSS BEST TONIC

It increases the appetite, tones up the stomach, invigorates and strengthens the system, and furnishes purer and better blood for the upbuilding of the run-down constitution. You will find no tonic to act so promptly and beneficially where the health has given way, the strength over-taxed by hard work and close confinement. Those living in the low, marshy sections of the country, exposed to the miasmatic poisons and breathing the impure air arising from stagnant pools and swamps, till their systems are filled with malaria and their health undermined, will find S. S. S. a most excellent tonic, and its timely use has many times prevented the serious complications that so often result from malaria.

Good blood, good appetite and good digestion are the foundation stones of good health. S. S. S. supplies all these, containing as it does ingredients for the purification of the blood and also well-known tonic properties, making it the ideal remedy in cases where the blood has deteriorated, the stomach disordered and appetite has failed.

S. S. S. being a purely vegetable compound, leaves no bad after-effects, like the strong potash and mineral remedies, which are bad on the stomach and nerves. A course of S. S. S. now will fortify the system, and the impurities that have accumulated through the long winter months are more readily and promptly thrown off, and the warm weather finds you in good physical condition, instead of weak, run-down, tired and debilitated, with no appetite or energy, as is apt to be the case where the system is neglected and nature left to take care of herself.

If you need a tonic and appetizer, you will find S. S. S. the best. Medical advice is cheerfully given without charge to all who will write us about their case.

Rock-a-Man, Savage Moro, Had No Likings for Being Photographed by Stranger.

MR. WAX TO THE RESCUE

Disciple of Mohammed Given a Chance to Cool Off in the Court.

Rock-a-man, one of the Lanoa Moros at the World's Fair, came near making one camera fiend a subject for the undertaker Thursday afternoon.

Rock-a-man, with about 30 other Moros, was at work at the upper end of the rowhead lake, scraping bamboo for the houses the Moros are going to build.

The camera fiend came along and as soon as he saw Rock-a-man he decided that he would have to have a picture of the savage.

Rock-a-man, like a good many of the Mohammedan Moros, is not anxious to have his picture taken.

The fiend did not heed his evident displeasure, and coming up close, pointed with a veil of rage, leaped up, booted and started at the man with the camera.

The photographer was intent on the work he had and would not have perceived any danger in time, but his friends, who were standing back a little way, admiring his nerve, shouted a warning, and the fiend fled across the piles of bamboo.

Rock-a-man flourished his ugly-looking bolo and muttered threats, and the others gathered around him, with their bolos in their hands, and the situation was threatening in the extreme.

Charles H. Wax, in charge of the Moros, was on the Philippine side of the ravine. He saw what was going on and ran with all his speed, shouting in Arabic to Rock-a-man to withdraw.

The Moro did not stir until Wax reached him. He then returned sulkily to his work, but his mood was so ugly that Mr. Wax took him to the Court, where he would not be tempted again to use his bolo.

The Moros are dangerous fellows, who would rather kill a white man than eat.

Rural Opinion.
Mrs. Crawford: Do you say that Panny and her city husband have a comfortable life? Mr. Crawford: Nothing comfortable about it. When I sat in my kitchen and started to smoke, Panny objected.

St. Louis Will See the Radium Dance

The radium dance, which has occasioned so much interest in New York, is to be produced in St. Louis.

Holmes Kralich, of "America's" fame, who has been in New York to his local managers that the radium dance will be one of the features of the Louisiana spectacle to be put on at the Odeon.

The radium dance is the newest thing in stage lighting effects. The stage is made wholly dark, and the dancers are revealed by flashes of light. The effect is said to be very brilliant and exceedingly novel.

The new light was first seen in New York City last month, when it made a hit in "Piff, Paff, Puff," a new musical play.

Since then it has been reproduced in London.

NOMINATION OF FAIRBANKS LİKLEY

Senator Platt Says It Is Agreed Upon—Indiana Man's Wishes Not Considered.

Special to the Post-Dispatch.
NEW YORK, May 6.—Senator Charles W. Fairbanks of Indiana has been definitely agreed upon by the Republican leaders at the running mate for President Roosevelt this autumn, according to the news which Senator Thomas C. Platt brought from the Republican conference in Washington last night.

"In Washington the feeling among the Republican leaders is that Senator Fairbanks is to be nominated for Vice-President," said Senator Platt. "It is practically settled."

"The only man who has not agreed to it is Senator Fairbanks, but he will accept and make a strong candidate. He is a very reluctant candidate, yet, an unwilling aspirant, but he will yield to the pressure for his nomination."

"There is nothing in the talk as far as my information goes," said Speaker Cannon, who was in good humor, discussed the entire political situation freely, both national and local.

"The prospects for President Roosevelt's election are splendid and growing better every day," he continued.

"What do you think of the claim made by what will be few. There are many who think he can and will be elected and all Republicans will fall in line for him."

Excitement in London Theater.
LONDON, May 6.—The fall of the curtain on Arthur's new play, "The Boos," at the New Theatre last night, was the signal for the noisiest scene witnessed in London theater for many years. A storm of "Boos" and "Hisses" greeted the play, which brought Sir Charles Wyndham to the footlights, prepared, he said, after several ineffectual attempts to gain a hearing, "to face the music."

There were cheers from the boxes, stalls and galleries, and shouts of "We all know you hate the gallery," etc. Finally Sir Charles pointed his finger angrily at the gallery and called the police to the scene. The police, however, did not intervene, but this did not abate the demonstration, and Sir Charles resented the audience, paid but unduly. After repeatedly calling for fair play he announced his determination to, in the future, protect his audience from such organized disturbances.

The uproar lasted fully 20 minutes and appeared to be due to dissatisfaction over the exclusion of Miss Mabel Terry-Lewis from the cast.

OTIS SKINNER'S NEW PLAY.
MILWAUKEE, Wis., May 6.—After an ovation expressed in certain calls, Otis Skinner was forced to come before the curtain at the end of the third act in his new play, "The Boos," which enjoyed a successful premiere at the Davidson Theater last night, and make a speech of gratitude to a fashionable audience.

PICTURES TURNED TO WALL.
Committee Membership to Be Kept Secret to Inspect Photographs.

A committee, the membership of which will not be announced, is to pass on the portraits of American women now stored at the Women's building at the World's Fair for the purpose of deciding on their eligibility to be hung in the museum of the building.

This decision was reached at a meeting of the Board of Lady Managers, held Thursday afternoon. The pictures are known as the Bain collection.

A desire to keep from the public the names of the ladies whose decision will say whether the ladies whose pictures are included are prominent American women or not is the reason for the appointment of a secret committee.

At their Thursday meeting the Board of Lady Managers decided that a reception will be given to the army and navy officers attached to the Exposition some time in May. A reception will also be given in honor of Miss Alice Roosevelt during her visit to St. Louis. The midsummer meeting of the board will be held July 15 and 16.

WIFE'S FEARS ARE REALIZED.
Body of Missing Man Is Found After Four Months.

After four months' search the body of Herman von Achen, who disappeared from his home, 925 Morrison avenue, Jan. 9 last, has been found. Henry Mueller, a gatekeeper, saw the body floating in one of the settling basins near Ferry street. The body was removed to the morgue, where the clothing and jewelry were identified as that of von Achen.

Von Achen left his home, telling his wife he was going to his work, that of a structural iron worker, and while his body was found late Thursday night. Shortly after his disappearance Mrs. von Achen offered a reward of $50 for news of her husband. A physician believed the man's mind to have been affected by close application to his work over some puzzling blue prints.

MR. SEQUICHI GETS HIS CASE CONTINUED

Cherokee Indian Charged With Impersonating an Officer Says He Acted in Good Faith.

Joseph R. Sequichi, a tall, imposing and handsome Cherokee Indian, was in the City Hall Police Court Friday, charged with impersonating an officer.

At his request, the hearing of the case was continued to Saturday.

Sequichi was arrested by Chief of Detectives Shevlin of Hot Springs, Ark., formerly of Chief Desmond's staff, now detailed here, and Detective Markham of Los Angeles, Cal., at the Southern Hotel, Thursday night.

The complaint against Sequichi was made by C. W. Smith, a traveling man from New York, with headquarters in Chicago.

Smith testified that while he was standing at the bar in the Southern Hotel Thursday night, Sequichi, whom he knew, tapped him on the shoulder and told him he was arrested. Smith protested and took Sequichi to Clerk Ryan, who identified him as a frequent guest at the hotel. He then took the Indian to his room and showed him letters and other credentials.

While the Indian was not satisfied and they came downstairs together.

Markham told the court that as he and Smith were passing Sequichi they heard him say: "No identification goes with me. I want money." Believing that he was trying to blackmail Smith, they arrested him.

In his own behalf Sequichi said he was a commissioner from Indian Territory to the World's Fair and was writing a book about the Exposition, the publication of which he had just arranged in Chicago.

He said he had met Smith and others on the train coming from Chicago, and when they arrived here they all repaired to the Southern Hotel, where they indulged in a drinking bout.

During this one of the party, a young man, drunk so much that he fell unconscious and required the attention of the house physician. At that time someone in the party warned Sequichi that Smith was "not all right," and he was probably responsible for the unconscious man's condition.

He said that he was merely satisfying himself of Smith's position and antecedents and where he might be found in the event of the young man's death and was acting in good faith.

He requested that the case be postponed until he could summon Commissioner Hubbard of Indian Territory to the World's Fair to vouch for him.

Judge Tracy postponed the case until Saturday.

REAL AMERICAN DIVORCE TO END DOMESTIC STRIFE OF ILL-MATED IGORROTES

MRS. JULIO CONGO.

Husband Started It All by Giving an Orange to Pretty Girl, and Once Happy A-Fong (This Is Igorrote For House) Became Too Small For Both.

A divorce case in the Igorrote Village at the World's Fair is likely to be the result of trouble in the Congo family, due to a gift of an orange.

Julio Congo gave the orange to Petra, a pretty Bontoc girl. Mrs. Julio Congo is jealous of Petra, and on account of the gift there was "something doing" in the Congo household Thursday night.

Julio was thrown out of the house, and Mrs. Julio will not let him return. In Bontoc they would simply quit without the trouble of getting a decree of divorce, but Dr. T. K. Hunt, in charge of the Igorrotes, will not permit such unconventional ways here, and he has advised Mrs. Congo that if she wants a divorce she will have to get it in the American way.

The Bontoc courthouse, in the center of the village, is about complete, and it is probable that the divorce case of Congo vs. Congo will be the first one docketed.

The troubles of the Congos have been brewing for some time. Julio has not disguised his admiration for the fair Petra, whom he has watched with his eyes, but it did no good. Julio admired Petra, and he didn't care who knew it.

Thursday evening when the daily ration of an orange and a banana for each member of the household was distributed, Mrs. Congo noticed that Julio did not eat his. Julio is very fond of oranges, and his wife's suspicions were aroused. She asked him why he did not eat his orange. His evasive answer increased her suspicion.

The Congos are living in their own grass-roofed a-fong and Petra is quartered in an adjoining one. As soon as it became dark, Julio said he believed he would take a walk. Mrs. Congo watched him and saw him take the orange with him. She watched him further and saw him hanging around Petra's a-fong. Petra came out and Julio gave her the orange.

Had to Leave

Happy A-fong.

When Julio returned to his own a-fong the commotion Mrs. Congo made aroused the whole village. She pounced upon him in a jealous rage and literally threw him out of the a-fong.

Dr. Hunt, taking a walk on the porch of the main building, heard the noise and hurried to the domicile of the Congos. He tried to patch up a truce, but Mrs. Congo said she was done with Julio, and would not have anything more to do with him.

Julio found shelter at another a-fong for the night.

Friday morning his wife was still mad. Dr. Hunt told her he wasn't going to have any grass widows around the village, and gave her to understand that if she wanted to quit with Julio she would have to get a divorce. It was explained to her what this meant, and she it would suit her first rate.

So, in all probability, as soon as the stone inclosure which constitutes the courthouse is completed, Mrs. Congo will take her witnesses before Chief Antonio and he will decide whether the conduct of Julio has been such that his wife is entitled to be separated from him.

If his decision is adverse to the wife she will have to take him back. In the meantime he will lodge at the a-fong of his neighbors, and will be able to present oranges to Petra with comparative immunity from the wrath of Mrs. Congo.

CITY'S ORPHANS BELGIUM'S GUESTS

Commissioner Carlier and Wife Will Have 200 at Opening of That Country's Building.

Orphans of St. Louis will be the guests of honor at the opening exercises of the Belgium pavilion, May 14, at the World's Fair.

Two hundred from the different institutions of the city will be invited by Commissioner-General Jules Carlier to be the guests of Belgium. His wife will assist him in entertaining the children.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Carlier are much interested in the work of making happy orphan children.

Mrs. Carlier is the vice-president of the congress that will be held in Liege, Belgium, next summer for the discussion of questions pertaining to charity for children. She is the founder of an organization in Belgium similar to fresh air missions.

Crown Prince Albert is president of that organization. It has established homes in the country where the poor children of the cities may go for a fortnight in the summer. Shortly after the opening of the pavilion Mr. and Mrs. Carlier will return to Belgium, where Mr. Carlier has large business interests. They will return to St. Louis in the autumn.

The Belgium pavilion will be in charge of Secretary Spruyt of the Belgian commission.

WILL REWARD UNSELFISH CARE

Woman Who Nursed Former Boarder During His Long Illness Receives His Estate.

Because she cared for him during his last illness, Simon F. Duffy, aged 38, whose death occurred April 20 and whose will was probated Thursday, left his estate to Mrs. Margaret Hack of 1212 South Broadway, making the provision that none of his children, or descendants of deceased children or any claimant or heir should receive any share. The estate consists of $500 life insurance.

Five years ago Mrs. Hack, left a widow with three children applied at a bag factory, where Duffy was foreman, for work to support herself and her children. Duffy found a place and soon afterwards asked for a room at Mrs. Hack's home, contributing weekly payments to her small income, thus helping her in her efforts to provide for the children, of whom he became very fond.

Later Mrs. Hack found more profitable employment, while Duffy, suffering from ill health, was finally compelled to give up his place and depend on the generosity of the woman he had befriended.

For nine months he was unable to leave the room, and Mrs. Hack, working during the day, spent much of the night caring for him, while her little daughter, Irene, aged 12 years remained at home from school to wait on him during the day.

Everything she could do to make him comfortable was done by Mrs. Hack. To her inquiries as to whether he had any friends whom he wished to notify of his illness, he always answered, "No one."

A few hours before his death he summoned a notary and made a will bequeathing his property to Mrs. Hack. After his death she arranged for his funeral and burial in Calvary Cemetery.

CULLOM BOOM IS STARTED

Senior Senator From Illinois Successor to Speaker Cannon in Vice-Presidential Talk.

WASHINGTON, May 6.—Senator Cullom's vice-presidential boom started just where speaker Cannon's left off. The friends of Illinois seem determined to have some one from that state talked of, so they are now talking the senior senator. Senator Cullom was not interested enough to talk about it, before he left yesterday.

Many profess to see reasons why Senator Cullom should favor such a promotion in his recent difficulties in having himself elected to the Senate.

His present term expires in 1907 and as vice-president he would serve two years longer. There is a wealth of senatorial aspirants for the Senate in his state, and these, it is argued, would easily unite on him for the vice-presidency, assuring the state to the administration. The men who could be thus united are Lawrence Y. Sherman and Representatives Hopkins, Smith, Reeves, Prince and others.

MRS. INGERSOLL SEEKS FEES.

Sues Estate of A. J. Davis for Money Due Her Husband.

BOSTON, May 6.—The suit of Mrs. Eva A. Ingersoll, widow of the late Col. Robert G. Ingersoll, to recover $5,000 from the estate of the late Andrew J. Davis of Montana as payment for legal services by her husband, was before the United States Circuit Court yesterday, but Judge Putnam reserved his decision.

The hearing was upon a petition by the plaintiff for a temporary injunction restraining the present holder of the property involved from transferring funds to Montana from Massachusetts.

Mrs. Newlywed and Mrs. Butterwise

WHAT HAPPENED AT BREAKFAST.

A Little Domestic Annoyance which Led to Some Good Advice.

Mrs. Newlywed had just left the house, and Mrs. Butterwise sat looking at his plate of unlabeled buttered toast. She knew Mr. N. was right. The butter certainly did have a decidedly "buttery" taste, and it was only a morning or two ago that it was redolent of onions.

Mrs. Newlywed was in despair. She patronized a good tradesman, and a good price for her butter, and it was really too bad to have it spoiled in this manner.

Just then Mrs. Butterwise happened in, and listened patiently while Mrs. N. told her butter troubles. Then she said: "My dear, you will always have such annoyances so long as you buy butter in the old-fashioned way. Buy butter and even print butter is always more or less exposed, and butter quickly absorbs odors. The dealer is not always to blame; the trouble is often in your own refrigerator. Now I want you to try my plan. Buy Meadow Gold Butter. It's the most delicious butter you ever ate, and it's sealed in the covey in an airtight tin, and is sealed at the covey in an airtight tin, and is sealed at the covey in an airtight tin, and I am sure you will get it, if you ask him."

FILIPINOS DISGUST SIOUX WARRIORS

Real American Indians Horrified to Find Eastern Braves at Work.

Chief Yellow Hair of the Sioux and the warriors of his village at the World's Fair have made up their minds as to what they think of the Filipino tribes. They have decided that the Moros and Bontocs and Suyos won't do. On their first visit to the villages of the far east savages the Sioux were favorably impressed. The islanders were doing nothing that day except sit around and smoke and Yellow Hair and his braves agreed that their far east brethren were acting in a very gentlemanly manner. They stayed a long while and manifested keen interest in the attire and manners and houses of the Filipinos. But it was different when they paid a visit to the Philippine villages Friday. They found the men actually working, while the women sat around in the shade and gossip. "Look at those faces," said "ugh" with unmistakable displeasure. "What matter?" was asked by somebody who had an idea that an Indian could understand better if addressed in chunks. "Men work, ugh!" answered Chief Yellow Hair, and he and his braves strode majestically out of the Bontoc village and returned to their camp.

Their displeasure was so great that it is not expected that they will again honor the Philippine village with a visit.

A contract has been let by the official board of the Third Baptist Church, Grand and Washington avenues, for the building of a new auditorium, with a seating capacity of 250, at a cost of $27,000. The last services in the present structure will be held Sunday, and until the new building is completed, which will probably be Oct. 1, services will be held in the auditorium of the Central Y. M. C. A. The front part of the present building, containing parlors, pastor's study and lecture room, will not be changed except by the addition of stairs to the first floor and gallery entrance.

FUNNY SIDE OF THE FAIR

GEORGE H. SCHAFER of Fort Madison, Mo., an exhibitor in the Palace of Mines and Metallurgy, after waiting a long time for his exhibits to be displayed by the Terminal railroad, wanted to show his appreciation to the railroad official who assisted him and he volunteered to forward a box of cigars. The official, P. W. Brown, explained that he did not smoke, but would accept a box of candy. A box filled with cut stone and a layer of rock candy on top was prepared and forwarded with this letter:

"Mr. Dear Sir: As I learn through hot wires, skillfully manipulated by Mr. J. A. Dorsey, that you do not smoke, but would accept a box of candy, I herewith tender the same by messenger from this department, with my compliments, believing that the top layer of rock candy on a foundation of everlasting Delmonico (immaculate oysters), an appropriate tribute to the placidity of your disposition, which is more enduring than my hot reference to the 'department of detention.' Having secured lost C. B. & Q. car 18,000, I am in a more happy frame of mind, and hereby resign my resignation as volunteer to the division of expedition, with accompanying credentials, memo, etc. Yours very truly,"

GEORGE H. SCHAFER.
"MAY I see Miss Egan?" asked a sylphily-dressed woman of Sergt. Ralph Whitney, custodian of the lady managers' building. "Miss Egan is at luncheon," replied the custodian.
"Why can't I see her, even if she is at lunch?" said the visitor.
"Miss Egan is at luncheon, I said," Sergt. Whitney replied, "therefore you can not see her."
"O, she's not at lunch, she's at luncheon, is she?" said the visitor.
"That's it," said the correct Mr. Whitney. "Well," slowly declared the sylphily-dressed visitor, "I have heard that the difference between a lunch and a luncheon is about $2.50 per plate, and I suppose the lady managers, with their $100,000 can afford luncheon, instead of lunch."
And she swept haughtily away.

BILL boys at the Washington Hotel awoke Thursday morning to learn that there were two princes in the house. For a week previous "the prince" to them had meant his excellency, Prince Pu Lun of China. Thursday morning, however, they learned there was also a Prince Hohenlohe in the house. The first boys to whom cards for Prince Hohenlohe were given did not know he is a German. They had not seen the name in print and for all they knew it might have been spelled "Ho and Lo."
One of the bellboys was told to take a card to "the prince." He did not catch the last name.
Starting away from the clerk's desk he stopped suddenly, turned and asked the clerk:
"Which one, Pu or Ho?"

IN the days of exclusiveness at the Lady Managers' building, Miss Todd, Mrs. Manning's secretary, was on guard one morning during the orderly's absence. An order had been issued that no man be admitted to the second floor. A boy entered and started up the staircase. Miss Todd stopped him and told him to stay where he was.
"I guess not," he said.
"Stay right where you are," repeated Miss Todd. "What do you want upstairs, anyhow?"
"O, want to see my mother, Mrs. Knott," replied the wearer of knickerbockers. "She's a member of the board, and told me to wait up there for her."
And the rule was not enforced against the young Kentuckian.

HAL H. SMITH, secretary of the Michigan commission, and William A. Hurst, are looked upon by the members of the lady board of managers as the heroic commissioners of the Exposition, all because they hung 78 window shades, 78 pairs of lace curtains and never once resorted to priority, and after the ordeal were as pleasant and smiling as though they had dined sumptuously. The lady managers inspected and passed upon the work of Mr. Smith and Mr. Hurst and declared every curtain to be perfectly straight. They even wrote letters to Mrs. Smith and Mrs. Hurst, advising them not to have the draper and the carpet man when they had husbands so skilled in the art, but to spend the money for a new bonnet.

THE T. P. A.s have a nice building and comfortable quarters. It is a man's building, planned by men, built by men, furnished by men and presided over by men. In fact, it offends the dignity of these lords of commerce for a woman to make a suggestion about this building. It is void of sofa pillows, doilies, throws, scarfs and lace curtains. It is very mannish and substantial.
"O, you haven't any lace curtains. You should have them; they add so much to the looks of a room," said a dainty bit of ruffles and frills.
"Wouldn't have one of those rags hung up here. This is one building that is free from the frumpiness of the other buildings," said Mr. Busch, the manager of the building.

THEY were in the Missouri building. It was easy to tell that they were bride and groom, for there were grains of rice on her hat and they had the honeymoon air about them. All eyes were turned upon them.
"Do you wish to register?" asked Clerk Captain O'Shea.
"No, sir, we are stopping at a downtown hotel," replied the groom.
"Better register; every couple that comes in here has to register."
"O, John, dear, I don't want to sign my name Mrs. J—," said the bride with a giggle.
"Go ahead, and sign it; the clerk says we have to."
"No, I won't; because everybody that looks over that register will know that we have just been married, and say that we are on our honeymoon. I'll sign my maiden name; then they won't know we are a bride and groom."

DR. WILLIAM C. STUBBS, executive commissioner of Louisiana, proposes to teach gallantry and courtesy in the Louisiana building, with the aid of the old Spanish stocks. He would like to get every man who will retain his seat in the car while there are ladies standing and put him in stocks for 24 hours.
"The lump of Louisiana gallantry is mighty small in comparison to the world of discourtesy, but I propose to leaven it a little," said this chivalrous knight of the South. "I was trained to worship women and let them do as they please."

WORLD'S FAIR NOTES

A feature of the Liberal Arts building is a replica of the lighthouse at Southwest Pass, La., at the mouth of the Mississippi. It is one-fourth the size of the original.

The sections in the Palace of Fine Arts ready for the public are: France, Belgium, Japan, Holland, Sweden, Canada, Austria and Great Britain.

A large collection of paintings representing Alaskan life are being installed in the Alaskan building.

The formal opening of the Idaho building will not take place until May 14, although visitors are now being received.

The Arkansas building will be informally dedicated May 15 with a reception to the Arkansas delegates to the National Press Association.

The electric fountain in the reception hall of the Missouri building will be in operation Saturday, when the building will be entirely finished.

A practical demonstration of the cooking and serving of breakfast foods will be given in the Palace of Agriculture May 15. Apples in the Palace of Horticulture bear their names printed in delicate tints upon them. This is done by placing the colored letters on the apples before they begin to color.

Thirteen hundred men are at work rushing to completion the Philippine government exposition, which is expected to be ready for opening May 15.

The formal opening of the Oklahoma building will be May 22. Gov. and Mrs. Ferguson and the governor's staff will be present.

The special tobacco exhibit of the southern states is being pushed night and day. The space occupied is 22,500 square feet and covers tobacco from the seed bed to the pipe or cigar.

Notice has been received that the Belgian minister of industry and labor will visit the Fair early in September.

The California building will be formally opened May 12, when a party of about one hundred Californians will be present at the ceremonies. This number will include members of the Press Association, who are coming for the Press Congress.

When New York City opens its building on the Model street, Mayor McClellan will officiate. Commissioner for New York City, Thomas W. Hynes, departs tonight for Gotham to complete final arrangements and set an exact date.

D. A. Brodie, superintendent of the government plant map, is rejoicing over the rain of Wednesday night, for he says it put the ground in ideal condition for completing his work.

The pay of the Jefferson Guards has been raised $2 a month, making it $2 a month and lodging. Their number will be increased to 50. Barracks will be built for them on the hill in the rear of the Fine Arts Palace.

Heads of the various departments are beginning to yield the ax over the heads of hundreds of salaried employees and within another week thousands will be said off. This fact dispels the false notion that there are still vacancies to be filled.

NEGRITOS WASH THEIR CLOTHES WITH FEET AND BATHE IN MARSH

Their Neighbors, the Igorrotes, Do Not Have Washday Mainly for Reason They Have No Clothes.

Friday was washday for the little Negritos, lodged temporarily in the Igorrote village. In the mud-water of the artificial rice marsh, in the ravine which runs through the village, they soured their clothes and completed the cleansing process by treading them in water buckets.

The Negritos are the only housewives who do their washing mostly with their feet. They use their hands some in the process, but most of the work is done with their feet.

Standing on the ground with one foot, balancing on it, they knead the garments in the water vessel with the other foot until they are clean enough to suit them, then, squatting by the side of the vessels, they wring the garments out and lay them on rocks to dry.

After the washing was done the two women who did the work Friday waded into the rice marsh up to their waists and bathed themselves.

The Igorrotes do not have a washday, mainly for the reason that they have no clothes to wash.

PAPER MILL OWNERS FORCING STRIKE

It Is Charged That Owners Seek to Close Mills to Raise Price of Product.

Special to the Post-Dispatch. APPLETON, Wis., May 6.—Every important paper mill in the Fox River valley may be shut down Sunday because, it is said, paper mill owners will issue an ultimatum to the employees to either work Saturday nights, as they did before the strike two years ago, or get their time. In case the men quit the mills will be shut down indefinitely for repairs.

The Patton Paper Co. is now the only nonunion mill in the valley and this will not be affected should anything happen. It is believed that after a shut down of several weeks the mills will be made non-union should the trouble get that far advanced.

While the union trouble is given as a cause for the shut down, it is believed that another reason is the wish to maintain or raise prices on print paper. Three times in the last three months the mills have shut down for the same reason, the fourth shut down may have in part the same object.

WOMAN LEADS POLICE IN BURGLAR CHASE

Mrs. Daly Surprised by Thief, Drives Him From the House With a Revolver.

NEW YORK, May 6.—A courageous woman with a revolver has brought about the capture of a thief in the Bronx upon whose person jewelry was found valued at $200, together with stolen promissory notes for $2000.

The heroine was Mrs. Daly, sister-in-law of a New York merchant. The latter and his wife were absent when Mrs. Daly visited one of the bedrooms where her sister's child lay asleep. She was surprised to find a stranger ransacking the family jewel caskets, and, catching up a pistol, chased him into the street.

A dozen patrolmen joined the chase, and under Mrs. Daly's lead, they surrounded the thief in a vacant lot. After considerable parley he surrendered under threats of being shot to death.

Every pocket in his clothing was filled with fine jewelry, evidently the proceeds of several burglaries.

ICEMAN WILL BE MERCIFUL.

Advance in Lake Prices Will Not Affect Rate Here.

There will be no change in the price of ice in St. Louis this summer. This statement is made by a number of dealers, who say they have heard nothing of any advance in prices, and that the rates will be the same as last year.

Reports from Chicago state that ice will be higher there this year, for the reason that it was much thicker than usual, requiring more labor to cut it. As much lake ice is shipped to St. Louis, it was feared by some the price here would be increased.

COUNCIL WILL PASS ON PARK BOND TONIGHT

Report From Committee of Three Named to Investigate World's Fair Surety for Restoration of Park Is Expected by Council.

MAYOR DECLARES PROPOSAL
ILLEGAL AND INSUFFICIENT.

City, Having Allowed Fair to Open, Has Still Right to Attach Machinery and Buildings at Its Close, Says Councilman.

The City Council at its meeting tonight is expected to pass judgment on the $500,000 bond submitted by the World's Fair officials to insure the restoration of Forest Park after the close of the Exposition.

In its message referring the bond to the City Council Mayor Wells expressed strong disapproval of its provisions, asserting that they do not conform to the ordinance under which the Exposition management was granted the use of Forest Park.

President Hornsby referred the matter for decision to a committee consisting of Councilmen Boyce, Gardner and Lawler, and their report is anticipated at tonight's meeting.

Some of the councilmen are surprised that the mayor, after vetoing the bond, should refer it to them for consideration, as they believe the bond, unless it has the approval of both the Council and the mayor, is no sense legal.

One of the councilmen who has looked into the question, stated to the Post-Dispatch that he thought the mayor's course rather an unusual one.

"The ordinance," he said, "under which the Louisiana Purchase Exposition Co. is doing business specifically states in its last clause that not until the additional bond which may be demanded by the Board of Public Improvements for the restoration of the park is properly approved by the mayor and Council and filed with the city register shall the corporation open or hold any fair, nor shall any machinery or buildings be removed."

"Notwithstanding the Fair is now open, there still remains a course of action which the city might follow to protect itself. This consists of the city's right to proceed against the Exposition company by preventing the removal of the machinery or buildings, which might be held as security for the fulfillment of the Exposition company's agreement."

"This, of course, would be the last expedient to which the municipal authorities could resort. But something must be done and done quickly."

Richard McCulloch, Acting General Manager of Chicago City Railway, Joins Transit Staff.

Richard McCulloch of Chicago, son of General Manager Robert McCulloch of the St. Louis Transit Co., has accepted a position which will make him practically an assistant to his father, giving particular attention to the mechanical and engineering departments.

Mr. McCulloch is at present acting general manager of the Chicago City Railway. He is 32 years old, unmarried, and was educated in St. Louis, finishing his studies with two years' work at the head of the largest street car system in Geneva, Switzerland. Returning to this country, he became his father's assistant in Chicago.

PRINCES HONOR CHURCHMEN.

Archbishops Ryan and Glennon Guests of Woman's Club.

Archbishops J. J. Glennon and P. J. Ryan were guests of honor last night at a reception given at the St. Louis Woman's Club. The guests at the reception represented many nations and creeds. China was represented by Prince Pu Lun, Germany by Prince and Princess Hohenzollern, and Japan by Mr. and Mrs. K. Sugawa. Aside from these there were distinguished guests from all over Europe.

The reception was originally planned to Archbishop Glennon, but on the arrival of Archbishop Ryan from Philadelphia he was included as a guest of honor. The reception committee was composed of 30 ladies, seated to the left of the two archbishops, who occupied a dais at the west end of the ball room.

GRABBED HAND IN HIS POCKET.

Says It Had His Watch, and Hand's Owner Is Locked Up.

Walter Howard, a white-haired man of 65, is held at the Four Courts on a charge of attempting to rob Nels Peterson in front of a saloon at 617 Market street Thursday night.

Peterson says he felt a hand entering his watch pocket, and he grabbed the hand, which, he says, proved to belong to Howard, and already had the watch. Peterson called an officer.

Howard says he cannot understand why Peterson grabbed him.

EXHIBITORS OBJECT TO HEAVY HANDICAP

Ten Per Cent Penalty for Those Late With Installations Causes Protest.

RAILROADS CHIEFLY BLAMED

Proprietors of Displays Were as Anxious as Fair Officials to Be Ready.

Because of the delay in the transportation of exhibits at the World's Fair, exhibitors are planning a protest to be submitted to the division of exhibits against the Exposition ruling "that failure to have an exhibit ready on the opening day shall attract a 10 per cent from the exhibitor's standing before the jury of awards."

A majority of the 50,000 exhibitors are taking a lively interest in the matter, and when the installation of exhibits is completed concerted action will probably be taken.

Exhibitors denounce the ruling and say that at no previous exposition did any such rule prevail. They add that they, as well as the fair management, were anxious to have things in readiness for the opening day. Most of those who were not ready say that if the transportation facilities had been better they would have been in place at the proper time. Even exhibitors who are not affected by the ruling declare that it is unjust, and will join the others in their protest.

An exhibitor in the Palace of Mines and Metallurgy said:

"The rule which provides that 10 per cent of the 100 points shall be deducted from all exhibitors who were not in readiness on the opening day is unjust and should be eliminated when the jury of awards gets down to business. There are few exhibitors on the grounds who are to blame for the delay in the installation of their individual exhibits. The trouble was and still is chiefly with the transportation facilities, and why should that count against the exhibitor?"

"Exhibitors all over the grounds have been obliged to take off their coats and, in their own work, my exhibits were delayed in transit by the railroad, and the delay to my goods necessarily occasioned a delay to others."

CONNECTICUT AS UNIT FOR PARKER

Eleven Out of Twelve Districts Are Carried by the Jurist's Supporters and the Hearst Movement Is Overwhelmed.

HARTFORD, Conn., May 6.—Preliminary to the permanent organization of the Democratic state central committee were practically all arranged early today in preparation for the business of the convention, although several committees did not take a recess until nearly daylight. It was not until the reports of all the caucuses had been made up that it was definitely known that Parker delegates had won 11 of the 12 caucuses and that Alexander Troup of New Haven, the leader of the Hearst faction, had controlled his own county caucus by only 10 votes. National Committeeman Homer S. Cummings and former Gov. Thomas N. Waller, for the committee on resolutions, prepared recommendations that the state convention instruct its delegates to vote for Parker at St. Louis and to vote as a unit.

BRAVADO BROUGHT ABOUT HIS DEATH

Michael Trutcius Falls to Death Attempting to Carry Out Boast of High Climb.

CHICAGO, May 6.—From a ladder, 150 up the side of a temporary tower at Steger, Ill., Michael Trutcius has fallen to instant death. Fifty fellow-workmen in a piano factory witnessed the plunge.

The tower had been erected for the use of a photographer in taking a bird's-eye view of the town. It was made of steel, in sections, and was more than two hundred feet high. The piano makers were leaving work soon after the last sections had been bolted together.

Trutcius, who was 21 years old, had boasted that he would be the first person to climb the tower, adding: "I'll climb to the top if I break my neck for it."

His companions cheered him on, and he slowly climbed the wide ladder the outside. More and more halting he ascended, until, when 150 feet high, he stopped suddenly, clung desperately and fell. His neck was broken.

3★ Purchases of Mens and Youths Suits

ANOTHER BRILLIANT TRADE ACHIEVEMENT FOR FAMOUS. ANOTHER MASTERLY DEMONSTRATION OF WHAT READY CASH CAN ACCOMPLISH.

OUR Clothing Buyer visited the Eastern clothing markets a fortnight ago and found business deplorably depressed—as a result of the backward Spring weather and the prolonged cold spell throughout the country. Manufacturers everywhere were overstocked and in financial straits—many needed ready cash to satisfy maturing obligations. Three of the largest New York makers, profiting by past experiences decided to sacrifice to Famous large lots of this Spring's Swellest Suits for men and young men, rather than risk carrying them any longer.

FAMOUS always on hand with plenty of cash took full advantage of the situation and closed out three large stocks containing 5000 SUITS IN ALL—at a saving to us that averaged between a third and half their former wholesale price. The suits are here, have been divided into two great lots and go to you commencing Saturday morning at lesser prices than they actually cost to originally manufacture.

They are made by three of New York's foremost manufacturers, whose productions we have successfully handled for years—whose productions we readily recommend on account of their thorough correctness and satisfying qualities. Their tailoring and general appearance suggest the handiwork of a skilled artisan. Every minor detail is carefully and thoroughly looked after, thus insuring permanence of shape and full measure of satisfaction to the wearer.

GIRL REPROVED BY MOTHER TAKES ACID

Pretty Grace Finch, Aged 15, Repents of Disobedience and Attempted Revenge.

LECTURE FROM PHYSICIAN

"We All Need Scolding Once in a While," She is Told and Shows Repentance.

Because her mother scolded her, pretty Grace Finch, 15 years old, tried to kill herself with carbolic acid Thursday night in her home, 217 North Eleventh street. She was rushed to the City Hospital.

THIS YOUNG GIRL TOOK ACID, BUT WILL NOT DIE.

Miss Grace Finch.

where the physicians succeeded in saving her life.

Friday morning came deepest repentance, which a hospital physician increased by delivering a homily on disobedience and the folly of not receiving scoldings when deserved, in the proper spirit.

Miss Finch was much impressed, and when she recovers from the burns caused by drinking the acid, she will heed home advice, she says.

Little Miss Finch went Wednesday night to the house of a girl friend, where she was to eat supper in company with a number of other girls. Her father was to call for her at 9 o'clock.

Mr. Finch called at the appointed time, but his daughter was not there. The party was over and the guests were gone. He returned home, and at 10:15 o'clock Grace returned and was sent to bed. She explained to her father that she left the house of her friend before he arrived there, but did not explain further.

Thursday her mother scolded her for being so long on the way the night before and said that her father was very angry about it. The girl pouted about the scolding all day and could not be aroused out of her fit of sulks.

At 9 o'clock Thursday night her brother Arthur, hearing strange, gurgling noises in the dining room, went and found his sister on the floor, writhing in agony.

At 9 o'clock Friday morning the girl's mother, Mrs. Matilda Finch, went to the hospital. When she entered the ward the girl leaped from her bed and threw her arms about her mother's neck.

"O, mother," she cried, "I am so sorry I did it."

Mrs. Finch went silently and patted her daughter's shoulder to show her forgiveness.

A physician, lured to scenes of misery and repentance, viewed the scene for a moment, then spoke:

"My daughter," said he, "a scolding is a good thing when we deserve it. Girls should not resent them as bitterly as you have. Sometimes mothers and fathers say more than they should, but girls and boys who live at home on the bounty of parents should know that they are not entirely free to do as they please. A scolding for disobeying one's guardians is not a reason why one should attempt so dreadful a revenge as suicide."

"Children are not the only ones who deserve or receive scoldings. They are given to all who deserve them, from the lowliest to the highest. Nine times out of ten a scolding is given because it is deserved, and it should be taken in proper spirit. If it is not deserved it may be listened to without hurt or offense. If girls could only know this, there would be fewer attempts at suicide."

Grace listened and went back to her bed, where her mother sat holding her hand until she fell asleep.

WEALTHY WOMAN STARVING

Devotion to Cult Teaching May Prove Fatal to Miss E. Reusse of Chicago.

CHICAGO, May 6.—Miss E. Reusse has been found unconscious in her residence, at 4105 Grand boulevard, and taken to a hospital, where it was found her weak and emaciated condition was the result of a fast lasting for more than 20 days. Miss Reusse lives alone in handsome house and is regarded as wealthy.

The police assert that recently she joined a new cult and that she almost starved to death in trying to follow its teachings, chief of which is said to be that only a few grains of wheat, pure water and fresh air are necessary to sustain life. She may recover.

MIDGET QUEEN IS A MOTHER

She Weighs Fifty Pounds, Her Son Eight and a Quarter, the Father 140.

Special to the Post-Dispatch. NEW YORK, May 6.—Queenie, one of the smallest midgets at Coney Island, became the mother yesterday of a bouncing six-pound boy.

The little mother is only 33 inches tall, and she weighs but 50 pounds. Her son, one-sixth as large as she is herself, is perfectly healthy, strong and well formed. Dr. John W. Pierce, who attended her, says the boy gives every indication of becoming a large, robust man.

Dr. Smith doesn't know of a recorded case of a midget giving birth to so large and so healthy a child. He will write a paper on the new arrival for the medical society.

Queenie has reigned in silks and satins, with a jeweled crown, as Queen of the Moon in Thompson and Dundy's "Trip to the Moon" at Luna Park ever since the spectacle has been produced. She is 27 years old. Last June she eloped with Arthur Balsano, an employee at Luna Park. Balsano is 24 years old, is 5 feet 6 inches tall and weighs 140 pounds. He was the happiest man in Coney Island last night.

ENDS LIFE AFTER MURDER.

Missouri Farmer Fatally Shoots Guest at Him Home.

LIBERTY, Mo., May 6.—Samuel Roby, a farmer, last night shot and fatally wounded Mrs. Thomas Pennington and then shot and killed himself. Mrs. Pennington and her husband were visiting Roby's home, and the tragedy, it is said, was caused by jealousy.

Mrs. Pennington had formerly made her home with the Roby family and was a frequent visitor to the house. The members of the family witnessed the tragedy.

HIGH SCHOOL SENIOR STRANGELY MISSING

Robert Kendrick Would Have Graduated Without Difficulty—Had Disagreement at Home.

Robert Kendrick, a member of the East St. Louis High School graduating class, has been missing since Monday. He left home that morning to go to school. He did not attend school and did not return home again.

His school record ranks high, and he would have been one of the members of the graduating class.

The only reason given for his disappearance is a slight disagreement at home. His mother died a year ago. He was to have sung in the opera which the High School will sing Friday night. He has much artistic ability, and has won honors in art contests.

VICTIM OF ELECTRIC WIRE IS FOUND DEAD

Mystery Surrounds Fatal Accident in Basement of East St. Louis Chemical Works.

William Schubert, a young Kentuckian, was electrocuted Thursday afternoon in the basement of the Grant Chemical works, Twelfth and Walnut streets, East St. Louis.

The dead man was employed about the plant, but had not been sent into the basement.

The only marks upon the body were blisters on the thumb and palm of the right hand.

A post-mortem and inquest was held by Deputy Coroner Brichler. This showed a white clot in the left ventricle of the heart, and the verdict of the jury was that Schubert came to his death from an electric shock.

KAISER WILLIAM ON WATER WAGON

Emperor Accepts Wine as Drink Only on Formal Occasions and Then Very Little.

BERLIN, May 6.—Col. Von der Esch, director of the Ems baths, who accompanied the Emperor William on his Mediterranean trip, is quoted as saying that the Emperor during the entire journey did not touch alcoholic stimulants except a little wine when dining with King Alfonso at Vigo, Spain, and at the luncheon with the King on board the Spanish royal yacht Giralda on his departure from Vigo.

When entertaining his guests on the imperial yacht Hohenzollern at Naples, the Emperor drank orange juice and mineral water.

GENERAL DAVIS WILL RULE PANAMA

Plan Similar to That in Force in the Philippines Decided Upon at White House Conference.

Special to the Post-Dispatch. WASHINGTON, May 6.—The general plan of the government of the Isthmian strip was decided at a conference at the White House, which was attended by Secretary Taft and Attorney-General Knox and all the members of the canal commission except William Barclay Parsons, who is in England. It was decided to follow the plan pursued in the Philippines.

No regular soldiers will be sent to the Isthmus and the present small force of marines will not be included unless unusual disorders occur. There will be no governor of the strip but Gen. Davis, who is to sail for Colon next Tuesday, will be administrator and will carry out the orders of the commission, of which he is a member.

AMERICAN BANKERS BUY JAPAN'S BONDS

Jacob H. Schiff Has Organized Syndicate to Take $25,000,000 of War Loan.

Special to the Post-Dispatch. NEW YORK, May 6.—It developed in Wall street yesterday that during his absence in Europe, Jacob H. Schiff, head of the firm of Kuhn, Loeb & Co., has formed a syndicate to take $25,000,000 of the new 4 per cent Japanese loan which is to be floated next week in New York and London simultaneously.

The syndicate will consist of Kuhn, Loeb & Co., Speyer & Co., the National City Bank and leading financial institutions in New York, Boston and Chicago. According to an announcement made in Wall street yesterday, the loan will be in the shape of a 7-year 4 per cent bond, which will be a first lien upon Japanese customs. The price at which it will be issued will amount to about 95, at which it will yield 6.4 per cent to the investor.

THE OUT-OF-TOWN CORRESPONDENT

BY REUBEN JASPER,

Special World's Fair Correspondent.

Special to the Hayville Herald.

ST. LOUIS, May 5.—I have just passed through a series of harrowing experiences here in this great and wicked city of St. Louis, and in accordance with my agreement to act as special correspondent for the fearless and flourishing Hayville Herald, the peer of any weekly newspaper in the world, during my visit to the Exposition, I hasten to pen these few lines to inform my fellow citizens of Hayville of the many dangers through which they must pass if they expect to see the World's Fair.

When I lit here in this town right off of an M. & O. train I seen that the place was full of people, but no sort of crowd can be seen for I went to old John Robinson's circus when it first came to Hayville more than twenty years ago, and I also attended the big political rally at the Story Point school house when Harrison ran for President in 1888.

Naturally I don't care anything for rushes and crushes, being used to them, and when a big, beefy brute of a policeman shouted to me to keep to the right when I started in the left door of one of the double entrances to the big waiting room at Union Station I got fighting mad in a jiffy and told him to mind his own business—that he needn't think he could order me around simply because he carried a club and wore a star.

"Aw, g'wan!" he said, "or I'll slam yer one in the eye!"

I'll tell you right now, Mr. Editor, it is a good thing for that big ruffian's family that I didn't have a gun on me, for I would have put a hole through him suter than shootin'.

But I held back my righteous indignation, although he pulled me around by the arm and shoved me through the door on the right side.

Never mind! If that fellow ever comes to Hayville I will get even with him by having you put a piece in the paper about him.

Well, no sooner had I got through with this duffer than I slipped up and nearly broke my neck on the tile floor of the waiting room. Say, tell everybody in Hayville to beware of that floor, for some eminent citizen is going to lose his life there some day. I don't see why the landlord of Union Station doesn't put sand on his old floor, instead of polishing it up, so every day that a mortal man can't stand on the blamed thing.

I'm no greenhorn, you know, because I've been as far as Cairo, Ill., and Paducah, Ky., once a piece, but I thought I might as well ask about a boarding house. I seen a fellow wearing a button that said "Ask Me," and so I did.

"Excuse me, pardner," I said, "but could you direct me to some good boarding house where they won't want your whole pocket-book the first night?"

Then he proceeded to give me a list of places where I could get a bed for $1 a night and meals at two bits a piece, but I sized him up for one of these here con men that hang around Union station with baskets of gold bricks, and I just sorter laughed to myself and passed on when he told me, after I had asked him, that his name was Barney Frauenthal, and that he was the boss of all the ticket sellers behind them big bars there.

So I went on out onto Market street, and out there I struck up an acquaintance with a mighty nice-looking young fellow, who said he was looking for a room himself. I suggested that we go together, and off we started.

"But say," I said to him, "I'd better get a shave and a shine before I go," and so he offered to take me to a barber shop near by.

Mr. Editor, what happened to me in that den of iniquity is enough to make a free-born people arise in their might and crush such vandals, who rob intelligent men like myself. But I see that my letter is growing too long, so I will have to tell you of this blood-letting and blood-curdling experience in my next.

Small Truths.

There is a polite way of showing a man it is time to say good night.

The woman with a long memory is not always a safe confidante.

Most men say they hope to be laid away without show and without flowers.

A woman always is sure her husband will grow old gracefully.

Tell a man he shows diplomacy and he feels he has escaped being detected in a direct lie.

When a woman attends a funeral she feels it is a duty well done.

A man is bothered when called upon to give the details of a wedding ceremony.

Women dress with a desire to look younger than their years.

The man who calls his girl adorable laughs at another fellow who does the same thing.

To a woman a man is more of a hero than an angel.

In Line of Reform.

There is an anti-profanity society league at Yale, and its special mission is to see that the word "damn" is no longer used upon the stage. The society is right. How much better it would sound, in playing "Macbeth," to say:

"Lay on, Macduff, and darned be he who first cries hold, enough."

Or:

"Out, durned spot."

Or, in "Shore Acres":

"I gave you the mother, but I'm dinged if I'll give you the child."

We call on all actors now in the city to become noncusers. — Cleveland Plain Dealer.

Chicago's Freight Subway.

The new freight subway, 40 feet under Chicago's business streets, is almost completed. Several months ago it was in use in the parts finished first, and now the entire system is about to open. The new road expects, before long, to handle 200,000 tons of freight daily, thus greatly relieving the congested streets and making the delivery much more rapid. The subway connects all the depots, freight houses, hotels, office buildings and business houses in the heart of the city. It is another of Chicago's innovations that will probably be adopted by other cities after its practicability has been proved. — Four Track News.

Cleanliness and Health.

Health Follows Cleanliness If You Use C-N.

When a floor is mopped or scrubbed with soap and water there is always a deposit of soap and dirt, which cakes in the cracks, no matter how careful the rinsing.

This is the very nicest place you can think of for germs and insects to grow and multiply. In fact, it's an ideal home for them. Always see that there's some C-N in the mopping, scrubbing and cleaning water. It is even more important than soap. The soap cleans, but C-N disinfects. The little collection of soap and sediment in the cracks is harmless if there is C-N in the water, because where C-N is no germs nor insects can exist.

This C-N is especially prepared for household use, and you will have no difficulty in getting it of any dealer. If you once use it for cleaning you will order it thereafter as regularly as you do soap. It's such a help and such a safe guard.

REMARKABLE CANVAS IN FRENCH SECTION

"Dath and the Woodchopper," by L. l'Hermite, Promises to Be "The" Picture at the Fair.

OTHER WORKS OF MUCH MERIT

Nephew of Gounod Has Madonna Paintings and Some Notable Portraits on View.

"La Mort de la Duchesse," by L. l'Hermite, promises to be "the picture" of the French section of the Fine Arts building. It was the subject of much interest and much favorable comment at the installation of the French works of art.

Its title in English is "Death and the Woodchopper." It is an illustration of Fontaine's fable of the same title. Its great size and the strength of its figures command attention at once.

The fable tells that once there was a woodchopper who was tired of his grinding work all the time. While carrying a heavy load of wood one day, he became so discouraged that he called for death.

Instantly Death, wearing white robes, appeared, saying "You called me," both he and his load fell to the ground, with quick with an answer, hoping that what answer would give him "the life" that he had been so anxious to discard.

"I only wanted you to help me with my load of wood," replied the woodchopper.

The figures in l'Hermite's pictures are life size. The woodchopper is dressed as a French peasant. His trousers are of blue cotton. On his feet are sabots. His shirt is dark.

His face shows the work that has been his life task. Big furrows mark his brow and cheeks. His hair is rough and seems almost to have risen in fright at the view of Death.

He is shown as he appeared when he fell to the ground, astonished at the sudden answer to his call.

Behind him lies his load of wood. The figures are evenly cut, but the woodchopper with bark and look as if they were the small branches of trees.

Death is standing. His head is a skull, and his robes of white hang as if they were draped about a skeleton. With sternness he regards the woodchopper.

In the chamber beyond the one in which this picture is hung are three pictures by M. Wm. Dubufe that are much admired.

M. Dubufe, who is at present in St. Louis, is a nephew of Gounod, the composer. His large central picture is "La Maison de la Vierge," or the "Home of the Madonna." The house is a painting of a little home in Capri. The Madonna is walking down the stairs carrying her child. Both are in white, but over them is a blue light.

On one side of the Madonna are portraits of M. Dubufe's daughters, Juliette and Mireille. Mademoiselle Juliette is named for a composition of M. Gounod, which had much popularity in France.

On the other side is a portrait of the two sisters of M. Dubufe.

The arrangement of the French rooms in time for Thursday afternoon was only made possible by night and day work on the part of the men who were sent with the exhibit as its guardians—Messrs. Hourquin, Delaville, Boudier, Bon. They have labored for 12 days. At the installation recognition was given to their work.

MISSOURI MUSIC AT MISSOURI BUILDING.

The Missouri building opened its doors to the general public Saturday, May 1, that time 3600 people have registered. A great many visitors did not register.

IMPRESSIVE WORKS OF FILIPINO ARTISTS SHOWN.

A collection of paintings by native Filipino artists, now open in the art gallery of the Philippine government exhibit, offers a graphic story of the Spanish dynasty, the war which wrought its downfall and the new authority of the United States.

One of the canvases of large size represents the death of Gen. Lawton, and is a wonderfully exact reproduction, according to soldiers who were on the scene of death.

The old Spanish regime is represented by a group of Queen Isabelle and the baby king, Alfonso, a canvas of the boy King Alfonso, and several of Spanish governors and generals in the Philippines.

The new authority is represented by portraits of President Roosevelt and Secretary Taft, while the most impressive picture of native life represents "Moros on Guard at Tomb of Chieftain."

IRISH-AMERICANS TO PREPARE AN EXHIBIT.

NEW YORK, May 6.—Arrangements are being made here tonight for an Irish-American exhibit at the St. Louis Exposition and will be entirely independent of the regular Irish exhibit.

It will be in the nature of a loan collection of articles of historic interest and will be for its object the illustration of the part taken by Irish-Americans in the building up and defense of the republic.

Among those who have contributed to the fund for the exhibit are Hugh J. Grant, John D. Crimmins, Daniel O'Day, James P. Grace, Clarence H. Mackay, Anthony N. Brady, Cyrus Townsend Brady and Dr. Thomas Addison Emmet.

"TELL IT TO THE MARINES" AT THE FAIR NEXT WEEK.

An indication that the fair will be near completion on inspection day, Thursday next, is the announcement made today that 20 United States marines and seven officers will be in their camp at the foot of government hill at that time.

Capt. L. Matthews of the marines, who is arranging the preliminaries for their coming, says that everything will be finished next Wednesday and that he has no notified Maj. J. E. Mahoney at the marine barracks at Washington, D. C. Besides the major Capts. Clifford and Williams, Lieuts. Reisinger, Harford and Lander and Surgeon Kennedy are coming.

The marines will guard the government exhibits, give exhibition drills and will themselves be looked upon as an exhibit. They are coming fully equipped with field and drill dress uniforms and will show Missouri something new in the way of tents.

New Instruments for Band.
The Philadelphia Scouts band is to have new instruments. On account of the World's Fair army regulations have been set aside for once. Ordinarily it takes three months to get new band instruments. The old ones have to be condemned as unfit for further service and in about three months the new instruments come along.

In the meantime the band has nothing on which to play. Maj. Wm. H. Johnston, in command of the scouts, showed the Quartermaster-General how the band could be without instruments through half of the fair. If the usual practice was followed and Friday he received notification that the new instruments had been sent.
